

Brantwood Specialist School

Brantwood Specialist School is a wholly owned subsidiary of Ruskin Mill Educational Trust and will offer a unique, holistic and pupil-centred approach to the education and care of 7-19 year olds who have not succeeded in mainstream provision. The school will provide an educational experience based on the National and Steiner Waldorf Curriculum, embedding the RMET practical skills therapeutic educational curriculum with accredited qualifications.

Applications are invited for the following post, based at Brantwood Specialist School, Sheffield.

TEACHER, Printing/Paper Making/Book Binding

Qualified rate, points 1-6: £21,588 to £31,552 per annum, starting salary is dependent on qualifications and experience.

Unqualified rate, points 1-6: £15,817 to £25,016 per annum, starting salary is dependent on qualifications and experience.

The key duties of this role will include:

- Ensuring pupils engage in learning and achieve: through careful planning of the structure, methodology and delivery of the learning experience.
- Applying knowledge about learning and the modes of learning to plan and deliver aspects of the Steiner Waldorf Curriculum within the assessment framework of the National Curriculum in addition to their subject area.
- Providing practical, experiential and therapeutic education and helping pupils to design and fabricate practical and useful items using a variety of crafts such as printing, paper making and book binding.
- Ensuring pupils develop basic skills in numeracy, literacy, ICT and in the Core Learning Skills, together with social skills, and to provide opportunities for pupils to practice and develop these skills.
- Assessing the progress of pupils in accordance with the School's assessment schedule and Curriculum Policy.

To undertake this position successfully you will have:

- A teaching qualification with QTS status or be working towards a relevant teaching qualification (PGCE or relevant Certificate in Education)
- Experience of delivering the Steiner Waldorf Curriculum would be desired
- Knowledge of specialist education
- Experience of working with children with learning difficulties and/or learning disabilities and challenging behaviour
- Excellent communication and organisational skills

A flexible and professional approach to work is required.

Closing date for applications: Friday 13th January 2012

Brantwood Independent Specialist School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will be required to undergo a CRB Enhanced Disclosure.

Brantwood Independent Specialist School is committed to becoming an equal opportunities employer.

To request an application pack, or for further information, please look on the Trust's website www.rmet.org.uk or contact Lindsay Wilkinson, Head of Human Resources (Brantwood Specialist School), Department of Human Resources, Freeman College, Sterling Works, 88 Arundel Street, Sheffield, S1 2NG. Telephone 0114 252 5993 or email lindsay.wilkinson@rmet.org.uk to whom fully completed applications must be returned.